Dear Client:

This Tax Organizer is designed to help you gather the tax information needed to prepare your 2018 personal income tax return. To help you complete the organizer with minimal time and effort, when available, you will find certain information from your 2017 personal income tax return. Enter 2018 information on the Tax Organizer pages provided.

-If you provide forms (W2, 1099, 1098, etc.), you do not need to fill out those sections within the client organizer. For example, if you provide a W-2 from your employer, you do not need to fill in your wage information. We will use the source document you provide.

-Please review your Identity Authentication section (page 7) for accuracy. If your driver's license has expired or you've received a new one, please provide a copy of the front of your license to our office. If you are dropping off your tax documents in person to our office, we will get a copy of your license at that time.

-If you have a rental activity or a business activity within your organizer & our office does not do monthly bookkeeping for you, please provide the income/expenses in the appropriate sections. For example, commissions paid, rent received, condo fees paid, business mileage, supplies, repairs, etc.

If any information does not apply to you or is incorrect, please draw a line through it or make the necessary corrections.

Notices to client:

1. We will file all individual income tax returns electronically, unless you choose to opt out.
2. We will automatically "check the box" on your Federal and state income tax returns which authorizes the proper tax agency to speak with us about your tax return, unless you instruct us not to.

As the new year starts, so does a new income tax filing season. In December of 2017, we saw the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, the largest tax code overhaul since the Tax Reform Act of 1986, not to mention the continual up-dating and inflation adjusting of tax brackets, exemption amounts, etcetera. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 could have significant affects on taxpayers starting with the 2018 tax year.

2018 continues to bring about tax issues related to the Affordable Care Act, requiring computations relating to premium subsidies and penalties for failing to have minimum essential health care coverage.

The I.R.S. is requiring disclosure of foreign income and assets. Failure to report income and disclose assets can result in severe penalties. These penalties can represent a significant portion of the foreign financial assets. Be sure to answer the foreign income / asset questions in the organizer (within Miscellaneous Information section) so that we can help you determine your reporting and filing requirements.

Whether you use the Tax Organizer or not, PLEASE PROVIDE US WITH ALL OF THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS:

- Forms W-2 for wages, salaries and tips.
- All Forms 1099 for interest, dividends, retirement, miscellaneous income, Social Security, state or local refunds, gambling winnings, etc.
- Brokerage 1099 statements showing investment transactions for stocks, bonds, etc.
- Schedule K-1 from partnerships, S corporations, estates and trusts.
- Statements supporting educational expenses, deductions or distributions, including any Forms 1098-T, 1098-E, or 1099-Q.
- All Forms 1095-A, 1095-B, and/or 1095-C for the advance payment of the Premium Tax Credit for lower cost health care coverage under healthcare.gov.
- Statements supporting deductions for mortgage interest (Form 1098), taxes, and charitable donation of a vehicle (reported on Form 1098-C).
- Copies of closing statements regarding the sale or purchase of real property.
- Legal papers for adoption, divorce, or separation involving custody of your dependent children.
- Any tax notices sent to you by the IRS or other taxing authority.
- Any changes in address, phone numbers and/or dependents
- A copy of your income tax return from last year, if NOT prepared by this office.

Affordable Care Act

- 1. Please be sure to complete the questionnaire, which asks if you, your spouse and dependents had health insurance coverage for all 12 months of 2018.
- 2. If you bought insurance from the exchange, we must report and reconcile the premium assistance credit on your tax return. Please provide Form 1095-A that the exchange sent to you with your tax information.
- 3. If your insurance company or employer sent you a form 1095-B or Form 1095-C, please provide the forms to us.
- 4. We must report on your tax return, and may have to calculate a penalty, if you, your spouse or any of your dependents did not have insurance for any full month in 2018. If you did NOT have insurance for each month of 2018, please provide details of insurance coverage for each family member by month. (If you believe you qualify for an exemption to the penalty, please let us know. Exceptions to the health insurance requirement are explained at www.healthcare.gov/exemptions.) See organizer page 69.

We are staying up-to-date with all of the many tax law changes. This past year, as always, we have attended numerous seminars and read much tax law, analysis and court decisions to ensure that we have the understanding and ability to prepare your income tax returns in full compliance with the new tax laws, while taking maximum advantage of the "tax breaks" that may apply to your tax situation. Our job is to look out for YOUR best interests and prepare your income tax return to your best advantage.

The better organized and prepared you have your data, generally the more accurate your tax return will be, resulting in the lowest tax legally possible, and generally, the lower the fee will be for the preparation of your tax returns.

The Client Questionnaire asks about pertinent tax items necessary for preparing the most accurate tax return possible. Please answer all applicable questions and attach a statement when necessary for additional information not provided in the Client Organizer.

If you have any questions concerning this letter or your Tax Organizer, or if you simply wish to make an appointment for the preparation of your 2018 income tax returns, please do not hesitate to call our office at 540/635-7729. Our fax number is 540/636-9379. Our website address is www.methodcpa.com. We look forward to seeing you and providing you with the most effective tax service possible.

To protect your privacy, your Tax Organizer contains masked data. Masked data displays as asterisks. For example, a Social Security number could display as --6789, an account number as 6789, and a date of birth as //2000. If you would like to confirm the masked data or make a change to your data, please contact our office. When you receive your completed tax return(s), make sure you review all Social Security numbers, bank account numbers, and dates of birth for accuracy.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you.

Sincerely,

Method CPA, Inc.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

Documentation Required for Charitable Contributions

By law all charitable contributions claimed as a deduction on your tax return must be substantiated by keeping a written record of the contribution. Acceptable written records used to substantiate each contribution include a cancelled check or bank record that supports the donation, or a written receipt or similar statement that includes (1) the name of the donee organization and (2) the date and amount of the contribution and (3) if any goods or services were received in exchange for the contribution. Contributions of $250 or more require a statement from the charitable organization. If the resulting returns are examined by the IRS, requests may be made for the written record of the contribution. It is recommended that for any charitable contributions claimed, you retain the written records for at least seven years.

The substantiation rules for noncash contributions require the donated property's fair market value (FMV) to be determined. FMV is the depreciated, or used, value of the donated property. It is not the purchase price of a similar "new" item. The following methods can be used to determine FMV:

- Valuation guides available from organizations such as the Salvation Army or Goodwill. Many guides include a value range that can be used to determine FMV based upon location and condition of the property. Keep any guides used to determine FMV with your tax records.
- Compare prices at area thrift stores for items in comparable condition. Visit a few stores to determine price and demand for the property.
- Search online auctions or classified ads for comparable items. Keep printouts of such listings used to determine FMV of the donated property.
- For donated items with a FMV of more than $5,000, valuation by a qualified appraiser will be required in most cases. Keep the appraiser's report with your tax documents.

To further substantiate your noncash contribution, keep any acknowledgment letters, receipts, or similar statements from the organization. Consider keeping a picture of the donated item(s) with your tax documents. See IRS Publication 561, Determining the Value of Donated Property for further information.

We do not require copies of cash charitable contribution documentation in order to prepare your tax return. You can provide summaries of cash charitable contributions.

You can also provide summaries of noncash charitable donations that do not exceed $500 for 2018. When noncash donations exceed $500 for 2018, you may want to provide receipts since we will need the date of contribution, a description of the property, the fair market value of the property donated, the donee organization's name, and the donee organization's address.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Our Privacy Policy

We value your trust and confidence and we want to assure you that your personal information is kept completely confidential by us. We adhere to the highest level of professional ethical responsibility and obligations to protect the confidentiality of all client information.

This statement is to help you understand what information we collect about you, the limited times we may share it with others and what measures we take to protect your privacy.

What Personal Information Do We Collect?

In order to meet your needs in the course of tax return preparation, tax and financial planning, and tax compliance engagements for you, we collect various types of personal information about you from the following sources:

* Information we receive from you in person, by phone, mail or e-mail, on tax preparation worksheets and on other documents or forms we use in providing services to you. Such information includes, for instance, your name, address, social security number, income investment and other assets, and other tax and financial information about you.

* Information we receive from others about your transactions or relationships with them. Such information includes investment, loan or banking activity, balances or account numbers, legal agreements and documents, and other information we gather in the course of providing services to you.

Is Personal Information Shared With Others?

We do not share any personal information about you with anyone without your expressed consent, except as permitted by law and as described herein. The law permits or requires disclosure in certain instances, such as if we must share information to protect against fraud, in response to a court subpoena, or as part of actual or threatened legal proceedings or alternate dispute resolution.

We may share any information we collect to nonaffiliated companies which perform support services on our behalf (such as tax or data processing, transmission of electronic returns or data, records retention, and mailing services). We DO NOT SELL or otherwise disclose our client list or any of your information to outside companies.

We may also share your information with other parties who help assure our compliance with professional accounting standards (such as peer review), or who conduct due diligence procedures, such as if we consider a sale or merger of our practice.

How Do We Protect The Confidentiality And Security Of Your Personal Information?

Keeping your information confidential and secure is of utmost importance to us. We follow standard industry practices to actively protect the confidentiality, security and integrity of your personal information. We also maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to guard your personal information. Our employees are bound by internal confidentiality policies and are subject to disciplinary action for any policy violations. And we take appropriate precautions such as confidentiality agreements before sharing your information with any outside parties.

Should you become an inactive client or should our relationship end, we will continue to protect the confidentiality and security of your personal information in accordance with this privacy policy.

Our Pledge To You

Our professional ethical obligations and responsibilities have always demanded no less than the highest regard and duties for the confidentiality of your personal information and the security of your privacy. We will protect your information, use it only as necessary, and perform our engagements so as to always maintain your trust and confidence in us.

Thank you for allowing us to serve you, we truly value our relationship with you. We hope you view our firm as your most trusted advisor, and we will work to continue earning that trust. Please call us anytime you have questions or we may be of further service to you.

Best Regards,
Method CPA, Inc.
